The writer and Shay examined and read the centents of the same, which proved beyond a doubt the presence of Foraker at the time.

The letters were written by a lady, two from a party in New York and others from Cleveland, Ohio. At a later date Foraker was apprised of the fact that the writer had these letters and asked if he could use the same. A letter was immediately letters and asked if he could use the same. A letter was immediately sent the writer by Foraker, stating that he would like to have a personal talk with the writer and a meeting took place a day or so after. Foraker acknowledged that he would pay for the letters. The amount not being considered sufficient, the offer was refused and from that day on and up until March, 1960 the writer on the pretext of exposing the letters and the co-incident of traker's being discovered bending over the prostrate form of Reebe had received a suffiamount of money to remain

"About six months ago, when I returned to Sharon, with my wife, I met Foraker and informed him that unless I received $6,000 between then and the time I intended to leave Sharon. I would hold the secret no longer. He then informed me that it was impossible for him to get that amount but that some time in April he would get a certain amount of money and settle with me.

mportant Witnesses Are Called at Investigation by the Federal Government of the Western Roads.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10 .- The aking of testimony in this city in the investigation by the federal government of the merger of the western rallroads effected by E. H. Harriman was begun today before Special Com-missioner E. S. Williams. The first witness called was Conner, of the Pacific Coast Steamship company. The en-tire forenoon session was consumed in the hearing of his testimory.

It was brought out that Conner formerly was connected with the Pan-ama Railroad tand Steamship com-pany, and Attorney C. A. Severance of St. Paul, who is conducting the case for the government, questioned him regarding the traffic agreements that exist between the Panama company and transportation companies on this coast. One of the first results of this line of inquiry was the pro-duction of an agreement made in 1968 guaranteeing 45 per cent of the rate to the company and the balance to the Panama people on all freight from New York to this city.
